TRAVEL 6,155 MILES IN 8 DAYS

Texas Motor Tourists in Columbia on Transcontinental Tour.

M. H. Carpenter, J. C. Clark, R. G. Schuerer and Miss Gertrude Schuerer of Wichita Falls, Tex., arrived in Columbia last night en route home after having completed a transcontinental tour over the United States covering twenty-four states in eight days. The party started from Wichita Falls, Tex., Aug. 27, came across the United States to New York, made a circuit through the New England states finishing in New York City.

They are going slowly on the return trip and expect to arrive in Wichita Falls next Sunday. They are driving a Chalmers 3400 R. P. M. car. This morning they had traveled 6,155 miles on the trip.

"The worst roads we found were in Illinois," Mr. Carpenter said. "We came from St. Louis to Columbia by the Old Trails route and expected to find trouble with the Mineola Hills. The Missouri roads are a dream compared to those of Illinois."

The party left for Kansas City this morning.

McDANIELS ASKS A HEARING

Defense Is Trying to Force Hand of the Prosecution.

By United Press.
ST. JOSEPH, Sept. 29.—That the defense is trying to force the hand of the prosecution of the McDaniel case in demanding a preliminary hearing is the belief of Special Prosecutor Lockwood.

He wants Justice Wilcox to certify the case to the grand jury. McDaniel's attorneys insist that the prisoner has a right to a preliminary hearing. Lockwood does not intend to reveal the hand of the state and may allow dismissal of the case in the justice court, planning to swear out a new warrant later and set another date for his preliminary after having him rearrested.

This would give the Acting Prosecutor several days in which to continue the grand jury probe and also give him more time to prepare the state's case.

"Isn't This a Pretty Coat?"

That's one of the many exclamations heard in our store every day now. Enthusiasm reaches its highest point when women visit our coat department, for we're showing more coats than in any previous season.

There are coats here now for women and misses—coats in plain colors, fancy plaids, plush and corduroys. Each coat has a new style feature that will appeal to you. Why not come in and try on some of these models? Are attractive, made full flaring from shoulder in back; semi-belt in front. A novelty cape effect collar adds distinction. A very good value.

Cost $8.50 to $42.50
